Gateway Review

The gateway review should be completed by the employer, supported by the training provider, to record how the apprentice has met each of the standard subject areas. This can be discussed through a Q&A, and/or the apprentice may present evidence that can be reviewed during the meeting to show their achievement of the standard.

The employer, supported by the training provider, must agree that the apprentice is, in their view, competent in the role and therefore ready to undertake the end-point assessment. This should be recorded in the table below, along with any comments.
