

Highfield Level 5 End-Point Assessment for Healthcare Assistant Practitioner

Mock Assessment Materials

Reflective Journal and Interview

Case Management		Reflective Journal and Interview
Ref	Assessment Criteria	Passed	Attempted not passed
S2	Manages own work and case load and implements programmes of care in line with current evidence, taking action relative to an individual's health and care needs

Supervision and Teaching		Reflective Journal and Interview
Ref	Assessment Criteria	Passed	Attempted not passed
S3	Allocates work to and supports the development of others and may supervise, teach, mentor and assess other staff as required

Assessment of Behaviours		Reflective Journal and Interview
Ref	Assessment Criteria	Passed	Attempted not passed
B1	Dignity: Treat individuals with dignity, respecting individual's beliefs, culture, values and preferences
B2	Respect: Respect and adopt an empathetic approach
B3	Courage: Demonstrate courage to challenge areas of concern and work to best practice
B4	Adaptability: Be adaptable
B5	Discretion: Demonstrate discretion

Assessment of Values		Reflective Journal and Interview
Ref	Assessment Criteria	Passed	Attempted not passed
V1	Honest
V2	Caring
V3	Compassionate
V4	Conscientious
V5	Committed

Additional reflective Journal and Interview Pass Criteria			Reflective Journal and Interview
Ref	Assessment Criteria	Passed	Attempted not passed
P1	The reflective journal content is organised and uses recognised referencing system.
P2	Uses appropriate language and sentence construction but with some inaccuracies in grammar and spelling.
P3	Is able to relate some concepts and theories to practice.
P4	Makes satisfactory connections between learning and future practice.
P5	Does not go outside word limit
P6	Is able to engage in professional discussion and is able to provide evidence that supports practice.

Reflective Journal and Interview Merit Criteria (additional to Pass criteria)			Reflective Journal and Interview
Ref	Assessment Criteria	Passed	Attempted not passed
M1	The reflective journal content is well organised .
M2	Accurate in grammar and spelling.
M3	Makes good connections between learning and future practices.
M4	Able to engage in and actively take forward professional discussion.
M5	Provides evidence that demonstrates a good level of analysis and synthesis across the range of theories and concepts applied to their practice

Reflective Journal and Interview Distinction Criteria (additional to Pass and Merit criteria)			Reflective Journal and Interview
Ref	Assessment Criteria	Passed	Attempted not passed
D1	The reflective journal content is highly structured
D2	Able to relate a wide range of concepts and theories to their practice.
D3	Draws conclusions and makes insightful connections between learning and future practices
D4	Is able to engage in professional discussion in a way that demonstrates a very good or exceptional knowledge of the concepts and theories they apply to their practice
D5	Demonstrates an awareness of the limitation of their knowledge, and how this influences any analyses and interpretations based on that knowledge
D6	Uses a recognised referencing system extensively
D7	Uses appropriate language and sophisticated sentence construction.			