How to Use this EPA Kit

Welcome to the Highfield End-Point Assessment Kit for the Express Delivery Operative.

Highfield is an independent end-point assessment organisation that has been approved to offer and carry out the independent end-point assessments for the Level 2 Express Delivery Operative Apprenticeship Standard. Highfield internally quality assures all end-point assessments in accordance with its IQA process, and additionally all end-point assessments are externally quality assured by the relevant EQA organisation.

The EPA kit is designed to outline all you need to know about the end-point assessments for this standard and will also provide an overview of the on-programme delivery requirements. In addition, advice and guidance for trainers on how to prepare apprentices for the end-point assessment is included. The approaches suggested are not the only way in which an apprentice may be prepared for their assessments, but trainers may find them helpful as a starting point.

Introduction

Standard overview

The dramatic growth of internet shopping and the use of portable ICT devices have transformed the occupations involved in express delivery services. Using world class equipment and software to provide timed deliveries and collections to homes and businesses; postal workers, couriers and express delivery drivers have a high level of individual responsibility for their working day and delivery route. They may be on foot using trolleys or required to use a vehicle such as a pedal cycle, motorbike, van or lorry. They are an ambassador for the industry, their brand and the goods they carry. They provide a high level of customer service which may include real time tracking of deliveries or the installation of electrical and other goods. They maintain excellent communication throughout the delivery chain from collection to delivery point and dealing correctly with failed deliveries and returns.

On completion, express delivery service apprentices may progress to more senior duties. These may involve supervising, team leading, training or mentoring colleagues or to senior express delivery management roles through further apprenticeships or degree apprenticeships. They may also become self-employed courier drivers which may lead them to create and manage a business and employ others or may move into operational and management roles related to the manual or automated sortation of goods and packages.

On-programme requirements

Although learning, development and on-programme assessment is flexible, and the process is not prescribed, the following is the recommended baseline expectation for an apprentice to achieve full competence in line with the Express Delivery Operative Apprenticeship Standard.

The on-programme assessment approach will be agreed between the training organisation and employer. The assessment will give an ongoing indication of an apprentice's performance against the final outcomes defined in the standard. The training organisation will need to prepare the apprentice for the end-point assessment.

The training programme leading to end-point assessment should cover the breadth and depth of the standard using suggested on-programme assessment methods that integrate the knowledge, skills and behaviour components, and which ensure that the apprentice is sufficiently prepared to undertake the end-point assessment.

The Express Delivery Operative Standard does not include acquisition of a Driving Licence for any class of vehicle. Where it is appropriate to the job role, employers are able to provide licence acquisition training and testing alongside the apprenticeship but this does not form part of the assessment requirements and as stated in the Standard, driving licence acquisition is not co-funded by government as part of the apprenticeship.

The training aspect of this apprenticeship will take a minimum of 12 months to complete. It is recommended that there are quarterly meetings between the employer, apprentice and training organisation to assess the apprentice's development of competency and performance in the workplace. These will inform the decision to enter the apprentice for their end-point assessment.

Readiness for end-point assessment

In order for an apprentice to be ready for the end-point assessments:

- the apprentice must have achieved level 1 English and maths
- the line manager (employer) must be confident that the apprentice has developed all the knowledge, skills and behaviours defined in the apprenticeship standard and that the apprentice is competent in performing their role. To ensure this, the apprentice must attend a formal meeting with their employer to complete the gateway readiness report.
- the apprentice and the employer should then engage with Highfield to agree a plan and schedule for each assessment activity to ensure all components can be completed within a 3-month end-assessment window. Further information about the gateway process is covered later in this kit.

Order of end-point assessments

The recommended order of end-point assessment is the multiple choice test; the role simulation; then the professional discussion. The professional discussion will need to be assessed last due to the potential carry over of criteria from the role simulation.

The Highfield Approach

This section describes the approach Highfield has adopted in the development of this end-point assessment in terms of its interpretation of the requirements of the end-point assessment plan and other relevant documents.

Specific considerations

Some of the evidence criteria used within the end-point assessment have been written by Highfield and are based on the Express Delivery Operative Apprenticeship Standard and assessment plan.

The apprentice will be assessed against the assessment criteria in each assessment method. The pass criteria have also been included in this EPA kit as an example of what the apprentice should expect to achieve in order to pass.

The role simulation scenario and the criteria this covers will be chosen based on the appropriateness to the apprentice's job role. Only criteria associated with the role simulation scenario the apprentice has been allocated will be carried over to the professional discussion if the assessor was unable to observe these during the role simulation.

There will be a 30-minute Q&A session at the end of the role simulation. This will give the assessor chance to ask the apprentice questions to cover any assessment criteria that they were unable to observe in the 40-minute role simulation.

Gateway

How to prepare for gateway

After apprentices have completed their on-programme learning, they should be ready to pass through 'gateway' to their end-point assessment.

Gateway is a meeting that should be arranged between the apprentice, their employer and training provider to determine that the apprentice is ready to undertake their end-point assessment. The apprentice should prepare for this meeting by bringing along work-based evidence, including:

- customer feedback
- recordings
- manager statements
- witness statements

As well as evidence from others, such as:

- mid and end-of-year performance reviews
- feedback to show how they have met the apprenticeship standards while on-programme

In advance of gateway, apprentices will need to have:

- achieved Level 1 English
- achieved Level 1 maths

Therefore, apprentices should be advised by employers and providers to gather this evidence and undertake these qualifications during their on-programme training. It is recommended that employers and providers complete regular checks and reviews of this evidence to ensure the apprentice is progressing and achieving the standards before the formal gateway meeting is arranged.

The gateway meeting

The gateway meeting should last around an hour and must be completed on or after the apprenticeship on-programme end date. It should be attended by the apprentice and the relevant people who have worked with the apprentice on-programme, such as the line manager/employer or mentor, the on-programme trainer/training provider and/or a senior manager (as appropriate to the business).

During the meeting, the apprentice, employer and training provider will discuss the apprentice's progress to date and confirm if the apprentice has met the full criteria of the apprenticeship standard during their on-programme training. The Gateway Readiness Report should be used to log the outcomes of the meeting and agreed by all 3 parties. This report is available to download from the Highfield Assessment website.

The report should then be submitted to Highfield to initiate the end-point assessment process. If you require any support completing the Gateway Readiness Report, please contact your Employer Engagement Manager at Highfield Assessment.

Please note: a copy of the standard should be available to all attendees during the gateway meeting.

Reasonable adjustments and special considerations

Highfield Assessment has measures in place for apprentices who require additional support. Please refer to the Highfield Assessment Reasonable Adjustments Policy for further information/guidance.

ID requirements

Highfield Assessment will need to ensure that the person undertaking an assessment is indeed the person they are claiming to be. All employers are therefore required to ensure that each apprentice has their identification with them on the day of the assessment so the end-point assessor can check.

Highfield Assessment will accept the following as proof of an apprentice's identity:

- a valid passport (any nationality)
- a signed UK photocard driving license
- a valid warrant card issued by HM forces or the police
- another photographic ID card, e.g. employee ID card, travel card, etc.

Assessment Summary

The end-point assessment for the Express Delivery Operative Apprenticeship Standard is made up of 3 components:

1. Multiple choice test consisting of 25 multiple-choice questions of 45-minutes duration
2. Role simulation of approximately 40-minutes duration (with a time tolerance of ten percent), followed by a 30-minute Q&A session
3. Professional discussion of approximately 40-minutes duration (with a time tolerance of ten percent)

As an employer/training provider, you should agree a plan and schedule with the apprentice to ensure all assessment components can be completed effectively.

Each component of the end-point assessment will be assessed against the appropriate criteria laid out in this kit and a mark allocated. The grade will be determined using the combined mark.

Multiple choice test

Total marks available are 25.

- To achieve a pass, apprentices will score at least 15 out of 25
- To achieve a distinction, apprentices will score at least 20 out of 25
- Unsuccessful apprentices will have scored 14 or below

The test will be delivered onscreen. It should be away from the day to day pressures of work and in a 'controlled' environment, which may be on or off the employer's premises.

Role Simulation

To achieve a pass in the role simulation:

- all pass criteria must be covered

To achieve a distinction in the role simulation:

- all pass and all distinction criteria must be covered

The simulation should take place in a relevant office or depot environment.

Professional discussion

To achieve a pass in the professional discussion:

- all pass criteria must be covered

To achieve a distinction in the professional discussion:

- all pass and all distinction criteria must be covered

The professional discussion must be conducted in a 'controlled' environment. It may be conducted using technology such as video link, as long as fair assessment conditions can be maintained.

Grading

The apprenticeship includes pass and distinction grades with the final grade based on the apprentice's combined performance in each assessment activity.

In order to pass the apprentice is required to pass each of the three assessments.

In order to achieve a distinction, the apprentice must gain a distinction in all three of the assessments.

The overall grade for the apprentice is determined using the matrix below.

Multiple choice test	Role Simulation	Professional Discussion	Overall grade awarded
Fail any of the three assessment activities			Fail
Pass	Pass	Pass	Pass
Distinction	Pass	Pass	Pass
Pass	Distinction	Pass	Pass
Pass	Pass	Distinction	Pass
Distinction	Distinction	Pass	Pass
Distinction	Pass	Distinction	Pass
Pass	Distinction	Distinction	Pass
Distinction	Distinction	Distinction	Distinction

Re-take and Resit information

Should an apprentice fail one or more of the assessment activities on the first attempt, a re-sit should be scheduled as soon as the apprentice is ready, when practicable for the business and in line with the policies, practices and procedures of Highfield.

A resit does not require further learning whereas a retake does.

The re-sit is normally expected to take place after all the required assessments have been taken and the individual assessment results and overall apprenticeship result has been given to the apprentice. A re-sit can only be taken within a minimum of 30 working days and a maximum of 90 working days following their first attempt at the EPA.

If an apprentice fails to meet the overall pass grade after a re-sit, their employer and training provider must review the apprentice's EPA performance and decide whether or not they require further learning and training before attempting to re-take. The employer should then notify Highfield when they feel the apprentice will be ready to attempt the EPA.

Re-sit/retakes will not be offered to apprentices wishing to move from pass to distinction. The maximum grade awarded for a re-sit or re-take will be capped at a pass grade unless exceptional circumstances are identified accounting for the original fail.

Assessing the Multiple Choice Test

The following knowledge areas of the Express Delivery Operative Apprenticeship Standard will be assessed by a 45 minutes multiple choice test consisting of 25 multiple-choice questions with a pass mark of 15 out of 25. It consists of 20 multiple choice questions to test knowledge and 5 questions based on role scenarios.

The topics covered within the test are listed below:

- Technical Operations
- Financial
- Safety
- Contingencies

In each paper, questions will cover each of the areas above, however not every aspect of every area will be covered in every test.

The multiple choice test will test knowledge across all elements of knowledge in the standard; it may therefore involve knowledge or a workplace scenario that is not directly applicable to the apprentice's current job role.

Before the assessment

The employer/training provider should:

- brief the apprentice on the areas that will be assessed by the knowledge test
- in readiness for end-point assessment, set the apprentice a mock multiple choice test. The mock tests are available on the mock e-assessment system.

Assessing the Role Simulation

The end-point assessment plan states that apprentices are required to carry out the duty in the role simulation while being observed and assessed by an independent assessor. Each role simulation is a simulation of a typical operational duty in Express Delivery and relates to specific training that will have been undertaken during the apprenticeship training programme prior to assessment. The role simulation will allow the apprentice to demonstrate skills and behaviours within the job role.

One simulation will be selected from the seven that are available. Highfield will choose (post-gateway) which one of the seven role simulations listed below that the apprentice will carry out during their EPA. In selecting the role simulation, the end-point assessor and the employer must ensure that all skills elements which will be assessed in the simulation are appropriate to the individual apprentice.

The duties covered by role simulation are:

- Scenario 1: Route planning for an urgent delivery
- Scenario 2: Deliveries using a bag, trolley or cycle
- Scenario 3: Deliveries involving installation
- Scenario 4: Collection of consignments on an express route
- Scenario 5: Deliveries of non-perishable goods using a van or lorry
- Scenario 6: Deliveries of perishable goods using a van or lorry
- Scenario 7: Delivery of heavy or large goods using a van or lorry

Highfield would encourage the employer/training provider and the apprentice to plan for the role simulation by familiarising themselves with the criteria that will be assessed and reflect on their experience in an express delivery operative role.

Not every aspect of the assessment criteria can be tested in each individual role simulation scenario. Some assessment criteria can therefore be carried over in the professional discussion, depending on the scenario the apprentice has been allocated, to ensure fair opportunity. Only criteria associated with the role simulation scenario the apprentice has been allocated will be carried over to the professional discussion.

The role simulation will last 40 minutes (with a time tolerance of ten percent) with a 5-minute briefing beforehand. There will be a 30-minute Q&A session following the role simulation in which the assessor can ask the apprentice questions based on any criteria that they were not able to observe during their role simulation.

Before the assessment:

Employers/training providers should:

- ensure the apprentice knows the date, time and location of the assessment

- ensure the apprentice knows which express delivery operative criteria will be assessed (outlined on the following pages)
- encourage the apprentice to reflect on their experience and learning on-programme to understand what is required to meet the standard and identify real-life examples
- be prepared to provide clarification to the apprentice, and signpost them to relevant parts of their on-programme experience as preparation for this assessment

Role Simulation Mock Assessment

It is the employer/training provider's responsibility to prepare apprentices for their end-point assessment, and Highfield recommends that the apprentice experiences a mock role simulation in advance of the end-point assessment with the training provider/employer giving feedback on any areas for improvement.

In designing a mock assessment, the employer/training provider should include the following elements in its planning:

- the mock role simulation should take place in a relevant office or depot environment
- a 40-minute (with a time tolerance of ten percent) time slot should be available for the role simulation, if it is intended to be a complete mock observation covering all relevant standards, allowing five minutes beforehand to brief the apprentice about the task
- a 30-minute time slot should be available after the role simulation to allow for a Q&A session to cover any criteria that could not be observed in the 40-minute simulation
- consider a video or audio recording of the mock role simulation and allow it to be available to other apprentices, especially if it is not practicable for the employer/training provider to carry out a separate mock role simulation with each apprentice.
- ensure that the apprentice's performance is assessed by a competent trainer/assessor, and that feedback is shared with the apprentice to complete the learning experience. Mock assessment sheets are available to download from the Highfield Assessment website and may be used for this purpose.

The seven role simulation scenarios are as follows:

- Scenario 1: Route planning for an urgent delivery
 - Based on a given urgent, rush customer requirement, use postcodes and maps or software to plan a collection/ delivery route, identifying route restrictions and timings to achieve best delivery time
 - Apply safeguarding policies during deliveries

- Complete documentation (ICT or paper-based), unloading or loading goods
- Follow correct organisation procedures for proof of delivery and inform customer and own organisation of such urgent delivery time
- Scenario 2: Deliveries using a bag, trolley or cycle
 - Pre-duty checks including checking a mail delivery bag, trolley or cycle and preparing letters and packages for delivery
 - Dealing with incorrectly labelled items, make deliveries
 - Respond to a dog attack
 - Apply safeguarding policies during deliveries
 - Complete documentation (ICT or paper-based), unloading or loading goods
 - Follow correct organisation procedures to document delivery failure and inform customer and own organisation.
 - Select correct action for re-delivery or collection by customer.

Assessing the Professional Discussion

The professional discussion is a structured discussion between the apprentice and their end-point assessor. It allows the independent end-point assessor to ask the apprentice questions in relation to:

- Their understanding of their job role, duties and responsibilities
- Specific parts of the training they have received
- Personal development and reflection on the training they have received
- Discuss and reflect on their behaviours in their job role
- Cover any criteria not assessed in the role simulation (only criteria associated with the role simulation scenario the apprentice has been allocated will be covered)

The end-point assessor will follow a template provided by Highfield.

The professional discussion must be conducted in a 'controlled environment' i.e. a quiet room, away from the normal place of work, however, in some cases, Highfield may choose to carry out the professional discussion via video conference.

The professional discussion will last 40 minutes (with a time tolerance of ten percent) and the end-point assessor will make the final decision as to the outcome of the professional discussion. The template will record the full details of the outcome.

Before the assessment:

Employers/training providers should:

- plan the professional discussion to allow the apprentice the opportunity to demonstrate each of the required standards
- ensure that the apprentice has been informed about the purpose and format of the professional discussion
- the apprentice must be informed at least 10 working days prior to the discussion
- ensure the apprentice knows the date, time and location of the assessment
- ensure the apprentice knows which criteria will be assessed (outlined on the following pages)
- encourage the apprentice to reflect on their experience and learning on-programme to understand what is required to meet the standard
- be prepared to provide clarification to the apprentice, and signpost them to relevant parts of their on-programme experience as preparation for this assessment

Professional Discussion Mock Assessment

It is the employer/training provider's responsibility to prepare apprentices for their end-point assessment, and Highfield recommends that the apprentice experiences a mock professional discussion in preparation for the real thing. The most appropriate form of mock professional discussion will depend on the apprentice's setting and the resources available at the time.

In designing a mock assessment, the employer/training provider should include the following elements in its planning:

- the mock professional discussion should take place in a suitable location.
- a 40-minute time slot should be available to complete the professional discussion, if it is intended to be a complete professional discussion covering all relevant standards. However, this time may be split up to allow for progressive learning.
- consider a video or audio recording of the mock professional discussion and allow it to be available to other apprentices, especially if it is not practicable for the employer/training provider to carry out a separate mock assessment with each apprentice.
- ensure that the apprentice's performance is assessed by a competent trainer/assessor, and that feedback is shared with the apprentice to complete the learning experience. Mock assessment sheets are available to download from the Highfield Assessment website and may be used for this purpose.
- use structured 'open' questions that do not lead the apprentice but allows them to express their knowledge and experience in a calm and comfortable manner. For example:
 - You have arrived at the delivery address with a valuable package and the door is not answered, tell me what you would do and why?
 - You are loading your trolley or vehicle with packages. What do you need to look out for and take into account as you load it?
 - You've returned to base earlier than normal and you've been asked to do additional deliveries and collect a return package. What information will you need in order to be sure you can carry this out?

Professional Discussion Criteria

Throughout the 40-minute (with a time tolerance of ten percent) professional discussion, the assessor will review the apprentice's competence in the criteria outlined below.
